

Dr Jane Law

Setting up a doctors office in Florence Avenue, Eastlakes

Who is Dr Law?

Dr Law is a Consultant General Practitioner (GP) from Intellectual Disability Healthcare, with over 30 years of experience and previously working at the NSW Developmental Disability Health Unit (DDHU), which is a specialised health clinic for adolescents and adults with intellectual disability. Dr Law is offering her service to Windgap's current NDIS participants and she conducts annual comprehensive health assessments and examinations, focusing on physical health, mental health whilst overseeing current allied health supports. Referrals and advice can be given in relation to suitable specialists.

Can I book my loved one in to see Dr Law?

Windgap is taking expressions of interest for appointments that will run at Windgap's Florence Avenue site in Eastlakes. Each appointment will be bulk billed to Medicare so there will be no cost for the appointment.
